

Kids Into Music (KIM) Student Application

Kids Into Music (KIM) is a program designed to help exceptional music students pay for music lessons. KIM is administered by the Helen B. Goodlin Foundation in conjunction with the Music Teachers' Association of California, San Diego Branch. Students residing in San Diego county, age 18 and under, will be chosen on the basis of need and musical ability. Program details and guidelines are available at www.helenbgoodlin.org.
